CONCORDIA CAPTURES MICRON CROWN

Host Concordia University Stingers came from behind twice to defeat the nation's number one ranked University of Ottawa Gee Gees 6-5 in the championship game of the Micron Invitational Hockey Tournament played last weekend in Montreal.

Mark Kosturik tallied the winning goal midway through the third period from a perfect feed by Jeff Carter to put the Stingers ahead for good and to give Paul Arsenault's skaters their first Micron title in three years. Concordia trailed 4-3 going into the final frame and could easily have folded after Ottawa's Michel Naud scored after 57 seconds. However, the Stingers got goals from Paul Brophy and Richard Blanchette to draw even and set the stage for Kosturik.

Concordia reached the final by beating Northern Arizona 9-4 and Union 5-4 while the Gee Gees advanced with wins over Union 6-4 and 2nd ranked Moncton 6-3.

The All-Tournament team was made up of Ottawa goaltender Carl Gervais, Alain St. Arnaud, Moncton's Gaetan Pellissier, Ottawa on defence and Frank Iammatteo and Kark Kosturik of Concordia and Mark Reade of McGill. Iammatteo was selected the Tournament M.V.P.
